

KRISTEN A. LAFAYETTE

PROJECT MANAGER

Kristen Lafayette is a Project Manager with The Conafay Group with a background in psychology, public policy, and local government relations.

As a Project Manager, Ms. Lafayette supports both non-dilutive funding and policy clients. In her role, Ms. Lafayette also serves as Coalition Manager for the National TBI Registry Coalition (NTRC). She has been with The Conafay Group for nearly three years now and enjoys engaging with clients across the life sciences spectrum.

EDUCATION:

Master of Public Policy, Frank Batten
School of Leadership and Public Policy at UVA

BA, Psychology, University of Virginia

CONTACT:

klafayette@conafaygroup.com

Prior to working at The Conafay Group, Ms. Lafayette spent her time working for local government offices in the City of Richmond and County of Henrico in Virginia. From these experiences, Ms. Lafayette has gained knowledge of research and data analysis, local government relations, and project management.

Ms. Lafayette earned her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Virginia. She also earned her Master of Public Policy from University of Virginia at the Frank Batten School of Leadership and Public Policy. Ms. Lafayette brings her interest in government relations and experience in public policy to The Conafay Group. In her free time, she can be found exploring the DC area, cheering on Boston sports teams, and practicing yoga.